This book is the product of more than two decades of serving in music ministries in various capacities throughout several states. It contains liturgical music selections for all Catholic solemnities throughout the year as well as some feasts. “Solemnities” include all Sundays and Holy Days of Obligation. Selections are provided for the two major Catholic music publishers in the United States: Oregon Catholic Press \(OCP\) and GIA Publications, Inc. Fundamentally, it seeks to capture the best of the best music ministries I encountered over the years.

3 Introduction

“The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as sacred song united to the words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy.”

Sacrosanctum concilium, 112

*When, in our music, God is glorified,
And adoration leaves no room for pride,
It is as though the whole creation cried:
Alleluia!*

*So has the Church, in liturgy and song,
In faith and love, through centuries of wrong,
Borne witness to the truth in ev’ry tongue:
Alleluia!*

The text of Fred Pratt Green’s well-known hymn “When in Our Music God is Glorified” beautifully captures the high esteem in which sacred music is held within the Catholic Church, and why. Though Pratt Green was not Catholic himself (the hymn was originally written for the Presbyterian church in England in 1972 (Hawn 2013)), the theology captured by the Methodist poet’s prose harmonizes closely with that of several important Catholic documents. This reality speaks to the universality, centrality, and shared understanding of music within the larger Christian church around the world, even while other theological debates prevail. In his encyclical Mediator Dei (MD; “On the Sacred Liturgy”), Pius XII (1947) proclaims regarding sacred music:

It is not merely a question of recitation or of singing which, however perfect according to norms of music and the sacred rites, only reaches the ear, but it is especially a question of the ascent of the mind and heart to God so that, united with Christ, we may completely dedicate ourselves and all our actions to Him (MD, 145).

Indeed, this is the sole purpose of music in the liturgy: that it may inspire all of creation to worship and glorify God, in profound adoration, and ascend to Him in mind and heart to be united in the truth of Christ’s sacrifice on the altar. Alleluia!

Praying through song is a very Jewish practice wherein the Catholic liturgy finds its roots. Scholarly consensus is that the Book of Psalms, also called the Psalter, is a collection of songs routinely used in Jewish worship, though how they were sung has been lost to history in the absence of musical notation in antiquity. (“Psalter” comes from the Greek “Psalterion,” the string-instrument used for the accompaniment of songs or psalms.) For Jesus, as a Jew, to pray the psalms was to sing the psalms, as he does numerous times throughout the Gospels. The psalter contains songs of glory and praise, supplication and thanksgiving, suffering and lamentation. They capture every emotion, occasion, and aspect of the human experience, from the most joyful to the most agonizing. Thusly does Pratt Green’s hymn go on:

*And did not Jesus sing a psalm that night
When utmost evil strove against the light?
Then let us sing, for whom he won the fight:
Alleluia!*

When the Church sings psalms during Mass, the Liturgy of the Hours, or at just about every other liturgical celebration to this day, she does so in fidelity to how those same ancient songs were prayed by Jesus himself.

The Catholic Church has always held sacred music in high esteem and, especially since the Second Vatican Council, has advocated for the participation of the faithful in music at Mass and other liturgical celebrations. Truth be told, however, one could compellingly argue that Protestant denominations have perfected what the Catholic Church professes in the musical arena. It is hardly uncommon in many mainstream Protestant churches—including the most liturgical denominations whose worship traditions remain similar to those of the Catholic Church—to find everyone with an open hymnal singing wholeheartedly to the best of their ability with the voice God gave them, through every verse of every song without complaint, even breaking out into four part harmony. Compare that to the average Catholic congregation, especially in Western English-speaking cultures! Yet the Catholic Church, in the Second Vatican Council’s “Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy,” Sacrosanctum concilium (SD), calls for just that: “[W]henever the sacred action is to be celebrated with song, the whole body of the faithful may be able to contribute that active participation which is rightly theirs” ((Paul VI 1963, 114, emphasis added)).

The Church recognizes and has acknowledged this unfortunate disconnect between profession and practice. Pope Pius XII did not mince words when he wrote, Indeed it is very necessary that the faithful attend the sacred ceremonies not as if they were outsiders or mute onlookers, but let them fully appreciate the beauty of the liturgy and take part in the sacred ceremonies, alternating their voices with the priest and the choir, according to the prescribed norms (MD, 192).

Although he was addressing the Mass as a whole, the statement certainly includes music, for:

[a] congregation that is devoutly present at the sacrifice, in which our Savior together with His children redeemed with His sacred blood sings the nuptial hymn of His immense love, cannot keep silent, for “song befits the lover” and, as the ancient saying has it, “he who sings well prays twice.”

And if that was not sufficiently clear, Pius also exhorted music ministers “to promote with care congregational singing, and to see to its accurate execution with all due dignity, since it easily stirs up and arouses the faith and piety of large gatherings of the faithful” (MD, 192). Fifteen years later, Pope Paul V reaffirmed this directive in SC (118):

Religious singing by the people is to be intelligently fostered so that in devotions and sacred exercises, as also during liturgical services, the voices of the faithful may ring out according to the norms and requirements of the rubrics.

Clearly, the active singing participation of the people in the pews is important!

To be fair, Catholic parishes that have truly taken these teachings to heart do exist—and how wonderful and refreshing it is to find one! Nevertheless, in the majority of English-speaking parishes, much work remains to be done, both in terms of the quality of music provided and the active participation in the music. Herein lies the commendable responsibility of music ministers, instrumentalists, song leaders (cantors), and choir members alike. The humble Catholic music minister will admit that much can be learned from our Protestant brethren. Differences in theology and practices do still exist, however, and Catholic Tradition must be understood and respected, and “the treasure of sacred music...preserved and fostered with great care” (SC, 114).

This “treasure of sacred music” is vast and rich, and giving it due justice is well beyond the scope of the present reflection. Within this trove are everything from Gregorian chant to polyphony, from four-part choir anthems to more recent songs by contemporary composers. Despite recent debates on the appropriateness of contemporary music in Catholic liturgy, MD (193) confirms that [i]t cannot be said that modern music and singing should be entirely excluded from Catholic worship. For, if they are not profane nor unbecoming to the sacredness of the place and function, and do not spring from a desire of achieving extraordinary and unusual effects, then our churches must admit them since they can contribute in no small way to the splendor of the sacred ceremonies, can lift the mind to higher things and foster true devotion of soul.

Because different types of music inspire different people, parish repertoires should ideally include some of everything, where and when appropriate, and as long as it is deemed suitable for Catholic worship. Discernment and informed scrutiny are necessary: not every song that mentions God is sacred. SC (121) explains that “texts intended to be sung must always be in conformity with Catholic doctrine; indeed they should be drawn chiefly from holy scripture and from liturgical sources.” (This is why so-called “pop culture” songs are never appropriate within Catholic liturgy.) Indeed, the Church encourages composers filled with the Christian spirit...[to] produce compositions which have the qualities proper to genuine sacred music, not confining themselves to works which can be sung only by large choirs, but providing also for the needs of small choirs and for the active participation of the entire assembly of the faithful (SC, 121).

Diligent attention must also be given to how liturgical music is performed. Cantors must be comfortable leading congregational singing, as this is precisely their role. “Choirs must be diligently promoted” (SC, 114) when and where appropriate. People are more inclined to join in singing if they hear others singing around them; thus, strong, well-trained choirs have the potential to be just as effective, if not more so, than cantors at encouraging congregational singing. The choice of instrument must also be carefully considered. The Roman Catholic (i.e., Latin) Church holds the pipe organ in “high esteem, for it is the traditional musical instrument which adds a wonderful splendor to the Church’s ceremonies and powerfully lifts up man’s mind to God and to higher things” (SC, 120). While other instruments are permitted, it must be ensured that they “are suitable, or can be made suitable, for sacred use, accord with the dignity of the temple, and truly contribute to the edification of the faithful” (SC, 120). For example, an acoustic guitar may be sufficient for a small group gathering, but wholly inadequate for filling a large church with sound. The instrument is not only to lead the cantor; it must lead and inspire the entire congregation.

Sacrosanctum concilium devotes an entire chapter to liturgical music, which opens with the quote preceding this Introduction:

The musical tradition of the universal Church is a treasure of inestimable value, greater even than that of any other art. The main reason for this pre-eminence is that, as sacred song united to the words, it forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy. Therefore sacred music is to be considered the more holy in proportion as it is more closely connected with the liturgical action, whether it adds delight to prayer, fosters unity of minds, or confers greater solemnity upon the sacred rites (SC, 112).

This bold statement is worthy of contemplation. “The musical tradition of the universal Church is...greater even than that of any other art.” Imagine stepping into Saint Peter’s Basilica in Rome—or any other famously ornate cathedral in the world—for the first time and being awestruck by the beauty of the architecture, the frescos, the stained glass windows, the sanctuary. Many a tourist who profess no religious belief or practice admit a certain indescribable “other-worldliness” of the stunning and breathtaking beauty found inside the walls of historic Catholic churches—which is precisely the intended response. The Church claims that as strong a response invoked by these most beautiful works of art, liturgical music should be even more impactful. The stakes are undoubtedly high!

The music minister's role is therefore crucially important. Music must be performed well so as to enhance the liturgy and elevate the minds and hearts of the worshipers. This must not be mistaken for theatrical performance for entertainment; at its core, liturgical music must be worship. The music minister must lead the congregation in such a way as to invite, encourage, and inspire full, conscious, and active participation, that all might [join] in the hymns of the Church triumphant and with the choirs of angels, and, all together, sing a wondrous and eternal hymn of praise to the most Holy Trinity in keeping with words of the preface, "with whom our voices, too, thou wouldst bid to be admitted" (MD, 192).

And equally important, the music minister must ensure that the music is suitable for worship and appropriately selected for the specific celebration. Only in this way can the music fully harmonize with the readings and spoken prayers of the liturgy to create one holistic act of worship worthy of Almighty God.

Thus, to the devoted and dedicated music minister: Go forth, produce beautiful music worthy of our God and inspiring to worshipers, that through your hard work, long hours of planning, practice, and rehearsals behind the scenes, and commitment to enhancing liturgical worship, the Catholic faithful entrusted to your musical care may truly ascend to God in mind and heart, week after week, in full, active, conscious participation. May the beauty of the music you provide surpass that of the most stunningly ornate church. And may the final verse of Fred Pratt Green's hymn "When In Our Music God is Glorified" ring true in every church every weekend:

*Let every instrument be tuned for praise!
Let all rejoice who have a voice to raise!
And may God give us faith to sing always:
Alleluia!*

In the words of Pope Pius XII:

Let the full harmonious singing of our people rise to heaven like the bursting of a thunderous sea and let them testify by the melody of their song to the unity of their hearts and minds, as becomes brothers and the children of the same Father (MD, 194).

And in the words of the psalmist:

*Praise God with the sounding of the trumpet,
praise him with the harp and lyre,
Praise him with timbrel and dancing,
praise him with the strings and pipe,
Praise him with the clash of cymbals,
praise him with resounding cymbals.
(Psalm 150 3-5)*

Saint Cecilia, patroness of music and musicians, pray for us!

4 About the Author

Matthew Grossi has been serving in Catholic music ministries for more than two decades. With humble beginnings as an occasional substitute organist at Sacred Heart, St. Peter, and St. Francis parishes in Torrington, Connecticut (now St. John Paul the Great Parish), he started playing regularly at liturgies as a pianist for the Catholic Campus Ministry at Florida Institute of Technology in Melbourne, Florida. He later served as a weekly organist at St. Jude the Apostle Church in Lewes, Delaware before returning to New England where he became principal organist at Our Lady of Lourdes Church in Carver, Massachusetts and St. Lawrence, Martyr Church in New Bedford, Massachusetts, while simultaneously substituting at numerous churches throughout Rhode Island and southeastern Massachusetts including St. Anthony of Padua, Mattapoisett; St. Rita of Cascia, Marion; St. Margaret, Buzzards Bay; St. Mary, Onset; and St. Patrick, Wareham. He most recently served as organist and music planner at St. Kieran Catholic Church in Miami, Florida, where he oversaw the purchase and installation of a new state-of-the-art Rodgers Infinity 351 digital organ.

Matt studied philosophy at Providence College in Providence, Rhode Island and theology and liturgy at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, Massachusetts. Music ministry is just his hobby: he is an oceanographer and studies the motion of the ocean full-time. He holds Bachelor of Science, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, all in physical oceanography, and works as a civil servant for the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA).

5 About this Book

This booklet contains music selections for all weekend Masses as well as floating Solemnities, Holy Days of Obligations, and other Feasts for which music may be requested. It includes a full three-year cycle (Years A, B, and C) of processional, offertory, communion, meditation, and recessional hymn selections, plus responsorial psalm refrains. Gregorian years are provided for each liturgical year for convenience. Since the liturgical calendar begins on the First Sunday of Advent, usually around the first Sunday in December, each liturgical cycle actually begins about four weeks prior to the Gregorian year listed. For example, liturgical Year A in 2023 begins on the First Sunday of Advent in December 2022.

Each liturgical season has its own section. The section Feasts and Solemnities contains Sunday solemnities that do not fall on a specific calendar date, solemnities that do fall on specific dates but occur at different points in the liturgical calendar from year to year, and other special feasts for which music either has previously been requested or may be requested in the future. Feasts or solemnities that fall on a Sunday supersede the usual Sunday liturgy, so the music selection for the feast or solemnity should be used on these occasions. Note that when this happens, the Sunday liturgy that was superseded is skipped altogether, not postponed until the next week. It is the responsibility of the music minister to keep abreast of these irregularities in the liturgical calendar and plan ahead accordingly.

5.1 Hymn Selection: A Heuristic

Music planning for Catholic liturgies is a deliberate process. First and foremost, hymns and songs (hereafter, “songs”) must be suitable for the part of the Mass for which they are being selected. This is one of the most important considerations when planning music, but it is also neglected far too often. For example, processional and recessional hymns, since they accompany processions, can and should be more jubilant or upbeat. This is not only true of the music choice, but how these songs are performed as well. In contrast, communion and meditation hymns are more solemn and reverent. Songs that speak of gathering (“Gather Us In,” for example) only make sense as processional songs and should not be used elsewhere in the Mass, while songs about the Eucharist are well-suited for communion, meditation, and possibly offertory hymns. Using Eucharistic songs as processional or recessional hymns, however popular the song might be (such as “I Am the Bread of Life” or “On Eagle’s Wings”), is rarely appropriate and is strongly discouraged.

Songs should seldom be selected “at random” and never to accommodate personal preferences. Rather, every hymn should be carefully chosen to suit the particular liturgy. The music schedules herein have been assembled according to the following hierarchical heuristic method:

1. Readings: Songs whose texts encapsulate, are based on, or are derived from any of the readings for a particular Mass are given first priority. This includes the first reading, second reading, Gospel, and Gospel acclamation verse. In some cases, the responsorial psalm texts are also echoed in a song selection.
2. Liturgical Season: The special Liturgical Seasons—Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter—are considered next. All of these seasons have their own songs that are best suited for that season as well as some that are appropriate only during that season. These songs are given precedence over common songs that can be used throughout the rest of the year during Ordinary Time.
3. Themes: Every set of Mass readings contains one or more themes that link them together in an intentional way. These themes are often more specific than the broader seasonal themes. These themes are provided in this booklet for every weekend and Solemnity for reference and to provide the music minister with a deeper understanding of that particular celebration and appreciation for its music selection. The vast majority of these theme lists have been taken from CanticaNOVA Publications.¹ Those missing from CanticaNOVA were compiled by M. Grossi.
3. Antiphons: Every Mass has a designated entrance and communion antiphon. These were traditionally chanted where hymns have become the norm. Nevertheless, these ancient texts are neither to be forgotten nor ignored, and songs based on or derived from these proper antiphons have been scheduled in the appropriate places. For example, the many songs referencing the Bread of Life can be used when the communion antiphons are taken from the Bread of Life discourses of John 6. Entrance and communion antiphons have been included in this booklet for reference and to reveal the context for many song selections that may otherwise not be obvious.
4. Miscellaneous themes: Other events or occasions sometimes warrant being captured in song, even if not directly connected to any of the above criteria. Examples include Marian devotions throughout the months of May and October; special days like the World Day of Peace (January 1); or Mothers’ and Fathers’ Day, which provide opportunities to honor our spiritual Mother and Father in a special way. Relevant music is substituted in as appropriate, but some adjustments may be necessary from year to year since most of these occasions tend to fall on different liturgical weekends each year.

¹CanticaNOVA Publications is an online company providing “quality liturgical music for today’s Catholic Church.” Liturgical planning resources, music planning guides, and other useful information can be found at <http://www.canticanova.com>.

5.2 Hymnals

The hymnal(s) from which each musical selection is taken are indicated as follows:

1. BB = “Breaking Bread”
2. G = “Gather”
3. W = “Worship”
4. H = “We Pray in Song” Hymnal
5. RA = “Respond & Acclaim”

Multiple abbreviations indicate the song is found in both books and can be taken from either one. In these cases, the music minister is encouraged to consider using only one book per Mass, if possible, to minimize confusion. Some songs are found in both hymnals but are prefaced herein with only one abbreviation. This indicates that either the melodies are different and the chosen melody was more appropriate for the particular part of the Mass, or that the lyrics or translations were different across the two books and there are compelling theological reasons to prefer the one indicated in this booklet. Music ministers are requested to honor these decisions. No prefaced abbreviation means the piece is not in either book. Most of these are included in appendices here, while the rest are sufficiently common and within the public domain so as to be easily found online (e.g., “O Holy Night.”) Hymn tunes (indicated by ALL CAPS) or composer names (Title Case) are provided where necessary to distinguish between multiple songs with the same name or one song put to multiple melodies.

The Gather hard-bound hymnals by GIA Publications, Inc. were generously donated to the parish with the intention of being used long-term. Out of appreciation for the families that contributed and those for whom the books were donated, they should be used as amply as possible. Several choral editions are available for the choir. These should be kept track of and used only by designated music ministers. All books should be treated with care to ensure their longevity. Be careful turning pages; avoid stuffing bulletins or paper into the book, as this destroys the binding; do not bend books backwards; do not write on or mark any page in any way. Treat them as property of the parish.

Despite its continued popularity in Catholic parishes across the United States, the Gather hymnal contains lots of songs whose theology is questionable at best from a Catholic perspective. People pray what they sing and believe what they pray. Thus, hymn lyrics should be carefully scrutinized and pastoral discernment exercised when choosing songs to use at Mass. Unfortunately, a sizeable percentage of the Gather repertoire falls short of this standard. (Is it surprising, then, that so many Catholics have such a shallow understanding of the rich Catholic faith?) Collectively, the music schedules in this book seek to utilize all of the theologically-appropriate music in Gather over the three-year cycle. Because of the limited options, most songs are used many times over. While some favorites may not appear one year, they are likely to be found in another year. This approach helps keep the music fresh, accommodates a wide variety of musical tastes and preferences, and exposes the parish to the wide spectrum of traditional and contemporary music collections of the Catholic Church.

5.3 Mass Settings | Parts of the Mass

Liturgical Seasons have been punctuated musically by different Mass settings, which consist of the Kyrie Eleison (“Lord, have mercy”); Gloria; Holy, Holy, Holy (or Sanctus); Memorial Acclamation; Great Amen; and Lamb of God (Agnus Dei). The preamble to each season section contains the Mass setting(s) to be used throughout that season, unless otherwise noted.

The liturgical year starts with Advent. The selected Mass setting for this season is “Missa Emmanuel”, based on the popular Advent hymn “O Come, O Come, Emmanuel”. Since the tune is so familiar to all Catholics in the United States, it is an easy Mass setting to pick up; one needs only master putting the Mass texts to the familiar tune. Similarly, the Mass setting used during the short Christmas season is “A Christmas Carol Mass.” Each Mass part is derived from a different Christmas carol, all of which are very familiar to the Catholic faithful. In addition to being easy to learn, the idea here is that people will hear and sing familiar Christmas carol tunes several times each year throughout an otherwise short Christmas season, during which there is hardly opportunity to sing each Christmas carol once.

The “Mass of Charity and Love” is sung during Lent. This somber setting in E minor is based upon the chant “Where Charity and Love Prevail” and is well-suited for this penitential season in the Church year. The Gloria to this setting has not been introduced to the congregation, since it is omitted during Lent, so other Mass settings are used on solemnities falling within Lent that require the Gloria. For Ordinary Time and the Easter seasons, three different Mass settings have been selected, one for each liturgical year. This is to prevent any particular setting from becoming old and “tired” from overuse while maintaining consistency throughout a given year. Their selections are deliberate:

5.4 Notes, Instructions, and Best Practices

Each liturgy is supplemented with relevant notes and instructions wherever appropriate. Some of these are generic pointers that the music minister should be mindful of. Others articulate requests from pastors and, as such, are subject to change. Still others are liturgical instructions taken from the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GERM, (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops 2011)) and are included here to provide guidance on particularities of certain liturgies. These are especially important during Holy Week, and it is hoped that the provided information is found to be useful. All instructions should be carefully noted and followed to ensure that the musicians are liturgically harmonized with the presider. Still, the instructions herein should never replace direct consultation with the presider: if there are any questions or doubt, it is the musician’s responsibility to confirm with the presider well before the start of Mass.²

²It is also good professional practice to consult any guest presider before the Mass to ensure common expectations, such as which Penitential Rite will be used. Be respectful of the fact that the priest will be prayerfully preparing himself for the Mass in the minutes before the service starts, so make every effort to consult him

A couple overarching musical notes should be made before concluding this discussion. First, separate communion and meditation hymns are provided for every Mass. This helps accommodate longer communion lines when needed. The scheduled meditation hymns should always be sung during Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter seasons in order to emphasize the spirituality of these seasons, even if communion is finished, and unless the presider or pastor instructs otherwise. As for Ordinary Time, many of the scheduled meditation hymns connect to either the readings, Mass themes, or communion antiphons. These can be considered true meditation hymns and should be sung if possible. Some are merely second communion songs and may be omitted at the discretion of the music minister. Please look ahead to determine which of these categories the meditation hymn falls into (it will rarely, if ever, be ambiguous.) When in doubt, and unless instructed otherwise by the pastor, musicians are encouraged to sing at least part of the meditation hymn since, as the name implies, they provide an opportunity to lead the congregation into deeper reflection into the sacrament and liturgy as a whole.

Many parishes nowadays celebrate a number of bilingual liturgies throughout the year that afford the parish opportunities to come together as a single community. In some of these cases the English and Spanish music ministries ought to also join together and share musical responsibilities, while in other cases one particular group may be asked to provide all the music but in both languages. This booklet provides English selections for these occasions and indicates space holders where Spanish pieces should be inserted. If multiple music groups come together, collaboration is necessarily and flexibility is warranted. If, for example, this booklet suggests an English processional song and Spanish offertory song but there is interest in reversing these at a certain Mass, the music minister should not merely move the English selection to offertory (for the reasons stated above) but rather should select a new appropriate song using the heuristic provided in the section Hymn Selection: A Heuristic above.

Special consideration should be given to the Church's preference for organ music, particularly for processional and recessional hymns when planning music for bilingual liturgies, as much of the commonly-used Spanish music is generally not well-suited for organ. As a matter of practice, the responsorial psalm is generally sung in the same language as the First Reading, and Gospel acclamation sung in the same language as the Second Reading. The same applies to the parts of the Mass: each Mass part (Holy, Holy, Holy; Memorial Acclamation; Great Amen; and Lamb of God) should be sung in the language that immediately precedes it, regardless of what is specified in this booklet. Music ministers are strongly encouraged to consult the presider ahead of time to minimize surprises in this regard, but both English and Spanish music ministries should be prepared with their own psalm, Gospel acclamation, and full Mass setting. It is always better to be over-prepared and flexible than caught off-guard and surprised. Additional notes on bilingual liturgies are provided in the "Notes" section of the music schedule as needed.

Finally, it should be pointed out that nearly every hymn, song, and Mass setting are linked to YouTube recordings to assist with learning or becoming familiar with the pieces. The recordings were selected according to their musical quality in terms of how the song was performed, the

at least ten or fifteen minutes beforehand.

instrument(s) used, the quality of singing, etc. The lyrics in the videos do not necessarily mirror those found in the parish hymnals. Cantors and choir members should always sing from the hymnals, not the lyrics found online. As of the release of this booklet, all but three songs—equating to 99.2%—have working video links. Simply click the name of any song in the PDF booklet. Of course, there is no guarantee these links will all work indefinitely. Searching the song title, composer name, and/or hymn tune should return plenty of alternative videos in the event a broken link is discovered in the future.

6 Version History

Version	Description
2022.1.0	The first version of this book was released for St. Kieran Catholic Church, Miami, Florida and included music selections from both OCP's Breaking Bread (BB) and GIA's Oramos Cantando / We Pray In Song hymnals. The preferred hymnal was BB, with at least one BB hymn option provided for every slot based on the 2022 Edition.
2025.1.0	A second, parish-agnostic, version using OCP's Breaking Bread hymnal.

Part I

ADVENT

The Missa Emmanuel by Richard Proulx puts the texts of the Mass to the fifteenth-century chant tune “Bone Jesu dulcis cunctis,” more commonly known as “Veni, Veni, Emmanuel” (“O Come, O Come, Emmanuel.”) The tune’s familiarity makes this Mass setting easy to learn and sing. It is preferred for all Masses during Advent for all years (A, B, C) unless otherwise noted in the Notes for a specific liturgy or occasion. Alternatively, the Mass of Angels and Saints, which includes an Advent Penitential Rite, can be used instead, particularly for the Kyrie and Lamb of God:

	GIA	Year C: Missa Emmanuel, C (“ Save us, Savior... ”)
Angels and Saints	GIA	Missa Emmanuel

	GIA	Mass of Angels and Saints

Ideally, the presider should sing the Kyrie invocations, if capable. Memorial Acclamation A (“We proclaim your death...”) should be sung unless otherwise instructed. The Lamb of God litany should always begin with “Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world.” No other texts are approved for the Catholic liturgy.

(These Mass settings, both published by GIA, will need to be purchased for public liturgical use if not contained in the parish hymnal.)

- The Gloria is omitted during Advent.
- “O Antiphons” are traditionally sung this week.

Part II

CHRISTMAS

(NATIVITY OF THE LORD)

The Christmas Carol Mass by Kevin Weed puts the texts of the Mass to the tunes of familiar Christmas carols, making it easy to learn and sing. It offers an opportunity to increase the use of popular melodies during the short Christmas season. The Mass setting includes options for the Memorial Acclamation and the Great Amen; the preferred version for each is provided here:

Years A, B, C

Kyrie	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen)
	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: Angels We Have Heard on High)
Glo- ria	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: Several tunes)
BB	Christmas Gloria (Paul Gibson)
Holy, Holy, Holy	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: Once In Royal David's City)
Memo- rial Ac- cla- ma- tion	Year A: Christmas Carol Mass, A (" When we eat... ") (Tune: Angels We Have Heard on High)
	Year B: Christmas Carol Mass, B (" We proclaim your death... ") (Tune: O Little Town of Bethlehem)
	Year C: Christmas Carol Mass, C (" Save us, Savior... ") (Tune: Good Christian Men, Rejoice)
Amen	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: O Come, All Ye Faithful)
Lamb of God	Christmas Carol Mass (Tune: Silent Night)

(This setting is not currently available through any of the three major publishers. It will need to be purchased for public liturgical use here.)

Alternatively, the Mass parts during the season of Christmas can be taken from the appropriate Liturgical Cycle, using the Christmas Gloria instead of the Gloria from the Mass setting.

11 CHRISTMAS: VIGIL MASS

ORDINARY TIME (WINTER)

Between Christmas and Lent

The season of Ordinary Time begins on the Monday following the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which replaces the First Sunday of Advent. Ordinary Time continues until the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday, at which time it pauses and resumes after the conclusion of the Easter season on Pentecost Sunday. The number of weeks in Ordinary Time between Christmas and Lent varies from year to year.

The Mass parts for all Masses during Ordinary Time are taken from the appropriate Liturgical Cycle unless otherwise noted:

Table 22.4: Choral anthems could be sung before Mass, in place of an offertory hymn, in place of a Communion hymn (if appropriate), or after Communion for meditation.

Year A	You Are the Light of the World (Wlp)
	I Am the Light of the World (Hayakawa)

Notes

- BB (OCP) calls this song “Lord, You Have Come to the Seashore,” while GIA calls it “Lord, When You Came to the Seashore.” The English GIA lyrics are preferred over those in BB, if given the option.

23 SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Themes

Year A: law, commandments

Year B: healing, compassion, imitation of Christ, purification

Year C: trust, hope, dependence on God, salvation

Entrance Antiphon

Be my protector, O God,
a mighty stronghold to save me.
For you are my rock, my stronghold!
Lead me, guide me, for the sake of your name.

Communion Antiphon

They ate and had their fill,
and what they craved the Lord gave them;
they were not disappointed in what they craved.

Or:

God so loved the world
that he gave his Only Begotten Son,
so that all who believe in him may not perish,
but may have eternal life.

Gloria		Omitted during Lent
Holy, Holy, Holy	GiA	Mass of Charity and Love
Memorial Acclamation	GiA	Year A: Mass of Charity and Love, A (“ When we eat... ”)
	GIA	Year B: Mass of Charity and Love, B (“ We proclaim... ”)
	GIA	Year C: Mass of Charity and Love, C (“ Save us... ”)
Angelus	GiA	Mass of Charity and Love
Lauds of God	GiA	Mass of Charity and Love

(This Mass setting, published by GiA, will need to be purchased for public liturgical use if not contained in the parish hymnal.)

The hymn selections provided herein for the Third, Fourth, and Fifth Sundays of Lent are catered to the regular readings for these weekends. If the Scutinies are celebrated, different readings, Responsorial Psalms, and Gospel Acclamations will be used. Some adaptations to the music list may be warranted or prudent in this case. Refer to the section Hymn Selection: A Heuristic for guidance on selecting hymns.

27 ASH WEDNESDAY

Themes

repentance, simplicity, sober reflection

Entrance Antiphon

You are merciful to all, O Lord
and despise nothing that you have made.
You overlook people's sins, to bring them to repentance, and you spare them, for you are the Lord our God.

Communion Antiphon

He who ponders the law of the Lord day and night will yield fruit in due season.

Part V

HOLY WEEK

Palm Sunday, Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil

Holy Week and the Holy Triduum are the most solemn celebrations in the liturgical year. Because each celebration is unique, extra preparation and attention to detail are required by all involved in order to celebrate them properly, beautifully, and liturgically.

Important instructions for musicians are included in the Notes for each liturgy in the pages that follow. The order of the liturgies can be found in the missalette section of Breaking Bread. It is imperative that musicians be familiar with the order of events and follow along closely to anticipate what comes next. Consult the Celebrant before each liturgy for clarifications or special instructions.

Palm Sunday and Good Friday

On Palm Sunday and Good Friday, the Mass of Charity and Love by Steven Werner is used for all years (A, B, C):

33 PALM SUNDAY OF THE PASSION OF THE LORD

Palm Sunday

Themes

triumph/passion, glory/suffering

Entrance Antiphon

Hosanna to the Son of David;
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,
the King of Israel. Hosanna in the highest.

Communion Antiphon

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Notes

- The Gloria is omitted during Lent.
- The Palm Sunday liturgy begins at the rear of the church. The Processional Hymn is not sung until after the first Gospel reading and the priest concludes with “...let us go forth in peace.”

- If given the option, the hymn “Were You There” should be taken from GIA, either the Gather or Worship hymnal, which usually have more verses than Breaking Bread.
- Choral anthems offered are alternatives for the Meditation hymn. Palm Sunday should be coordinated with Good Friday to avoid repeating anthems.

34 HOLY THURSDAY

Mass of the Lord's Supper

Themes

eucharist, glory, salvation, service, humility, love

Entrance Antiphon

We should glory in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, in whom is our salvation, life and resurrection,
through whom we are saved and delivered.

Communion Antiphon

This is the Body that will be given up for you;
this is the Chalice of the new covenant in my Blood, says the Lord;
do this, whenever you receive it, in memory of me.

Year C	Panis Angelicus (Franck)

Notes

- The Gloria is sung. While the hymn is being sung, bells are rung. The organist is encouraged to use the Zimbelstern throughout the entire piece. Cantors and singers should be prepared to sing strongly and joyously. When finished, all bells remain silent until the Gloria of the Easter Vigil. Likewise, during this same period, the organ and other musical instruments may be used only so as to support singing.
- During the Transfer of the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar of Repose, verses 1-4 of “Pange Lingua, Gloriosi” are sung, repeating as necessary. Verses 5-6 (“Tantum Ergo”) are sung at the Altar of Repose.

Notes

- The Holy Triduum—Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil— is one single liturgy. Thus, there is no processional or recessional hymn on Good Friday. All gather and depart in silence.
- No prelude or postlude music is permitted. The organ and other musical instruments may be used only so as to support singing.
- No music rehearsals of any kind, including singer warm-ups, should take place in the church before this service. Sacred silence is to be diligently respected by all.
- If given the option, the hymn “Were You There” should be taken from GIA, either the Gather or Worship hymnal, which usually have more verses than Breaking Bread.
- Choral anthems offered as alternatives or in addition to hymns listed for the Veneration of the Cross, Communion hymn, or Meditation hymn. Good Friday should be coordinated with Palm Sunday to avoid repeating anthems.

Notes

- The Easter Vigil requires extra vigilance and attention to detail by all ministers, including and especially the music ministry. Cantors, singers, and instrumentalists should all follow along with the Order of the Liturgy found in the missalette section of Breaking Bread. The Liturgy of the Eucharist, starting with the Offertory hymn, proceeds as usual.

- The Easter Vigil continues, culminates, and concludes the single liturgy of the Holy Triduum. Thus, it begins in silence. No prelude music is permitted, and no music rehearsals of any kind, including singer warm-ups, should take place in the church before the service. The organ and other musical instruments should be used only so as to support singing until the Gloria.
- The cantor leads the congregation in all chanted responses throughout the Liturgy, starting with the “Thanks be to God” triplicate as the Holy Cross is brought into the church.
- The cantor may be asked by the presider to chant the Paschal Proclamation (also known as the Exsultet). He/she should be extremely comfortable with this important – and lengthy – chant, which is to be done a capella and in the dark. Be sure to confirm with the presider whether to chant the long version (provided in Appendix E, usually preferred) or the optional shorter version. Always omit the section for Deacon/Priest only (see instructions in Appendix E), regardless of the version used.
- The presider may opt to shorten the Liturgy of the Word by omitting the second, fourth, and sixth sets of readings, psalms, and prayers. Music ministers should be sure to consult with the presider well before the Mass to know how this will be done.
- The Celebrant intones the Gloria with “Glory to God in the highest” or “Gloria in excelsis Deo.” The introduction can be started immediately after this and the Gloria is sung as usual while bells are rung. The organist is encouraged to use the Zimbelstern throughout the entire piece. Cantors and singers should be prepared to sing strongly and joyously.
- If Baptism is not celebrated, the Litany of the Saints and the “Water of Life” acclamations are omitted.
- The Regina Cæli may be chanted (with light accompaniment) after Communion during the Easter Season if requested by the presider or if custom to the parish. It is not prescribed in the Liturgy.
- If the dismissal of the people is chanted by the presider, the cantor and/or choir must promptly – without pause or hesitation – lead the chanted response, as found in Appendix F.
- The hymn, “Hail Thee, Festival Day”, could be considered as a Recessional hymn if (1) it is available in the hymnal, (2) a strong choir and skilled musicians are performing at the Easter Vigil, AND (3) the congregation is not likely to sing at this Liturgy. It is usually unfamiliar to Catholic congregations and is difficult to sing; thus, it needs to be well rehearsed by choir, cantor, and musicians alike in order to be performed accurately and well. Nevertheless, it is a particularly festive hymn that is highly appropriate for this occasion. If used, only the Easter verses (1-2) should be sung this night.

Notes

- If available, the Festival Alleluia (GIA) is used for the Gospel Acclamation with the Easter verse found in Appendix B.
- The Sequence is sung by the cantor only (i.e., no choir) immediately after the Second Reading. The entire hymn is to be sung. Note that it is the version set to the tune VICTIMAE PASCHALI. Accompaniment should be soft and reverent, like Meditation hymns.

- The Regina Cæli may be chanted (with light accompaniment) after Communion during the Easter Season if requested by the presider or if custom to the parish. It is not prescribed in the Liturgy.
- If the dismissal of the people is chanted by the presider, the cantor must promptly – without pause or hesitation – lead the chanted response found in Appendix F.

38 SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Sunday of Divine Mercy

Themes

mercy, baptism, faith, community, praise, rejoicing

Entrance Antiphon

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

Or:

Receive the joy of your glory, giving thanks to God,
who has called you into the heavenly kingdom, alleluia.

39 THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Themes

Word/Eucharist, fulfillment, joy, hope, revelation, scripture, path of life, glory

Entrance Antiphon

Cry out with joy to God, all the earth;
O sing to the glory of his name.
O render him glorious praise, alleluia.

Communion Antiphon

The disciples recognized the Lord Jesus in the breaking of the bread, alleluia.

Or:

Optional for Year B:

The Christ had to suffer and on the third day rise from the dead;
in his name repentance and remission of sins
must be preached to all the nations, alleluia.

Or:

Optional for Year C:

Jesus said to his disciples: Come and eat.
And he took bread and gave it to them, alleluia.

Notes

- An optional Extended Vigil may be celebrated. The music minister should be sure to consult with the presider before the liturgy to know which form is being used.
- The presider may opt to use the same readings as Pentecost Sunday. In this case, the music selections are taken from Pentecost Sunday, not from this list. The music minister must coordinate this with the presider before the start of the liturgy.
- If available, the Festival Alleluia (GIA), with the Pentecost verse found in Appendix B, is sung for the Gospel Acclamation.
- If the dismissal of the people is chanted by the presider, the cantor must promptly – without pause or hesitation – lead the chanted response found in Appendix F.
- The hymn, “Hail Thee, Festival Day”, could be considered as a Recessional hymn if (1) it is available in the hymnal, (2) a strong choir and skilled musicians are performing at the Vigil of Pentecost, AND (3) the congregation is not likely to sing at this Liturgy. It is usually unfamiliar to Catholic congregations and is difficult to sing; thus, it needs to be well rehearsed by choir, cantor, and musicians alike in order to be performed accurately and well. Nevertheless, it is a particularly festive hymn that is highly appropriate for this occasion. If used, the Pentecost verses (5-6) should be sung this night.

Notes

- If the Extended Vigil is not celebrated, the Simple Vigil is celebrated with two readings and one responsorial psalm can be used as usual. These are to be selected by the presider. The music minister should be sure to consult with the presider before the liturgy to know what psalm to sing.
- The presider may opt to use the same readings as Pentecost Sunday. In this case, the music selections are taken from Pentecost Sunday, not from this list. The music minister must coordinate this with the presider before the start of the liturgy.
- If celebrated, the extended Vigil of Pentecost liturgy begins in the usual way with the Processional hymn and Kyrie; however, the Gloria is not sung until after the readings, as at the Easter Vigil.
- The Liturgy of the Word is organized just like at the Easter Vigil, with a series of readings, responsorial psalms, and prayers.
- After the prayer following the last reading and responsorial psalm, the Celebrant intones the Gloria with “Glory to God in the highest” or “Gloria in excelsis Deo.” The introduction can be started immediately after this and the Gloria is sung as usual while the altar candles are lit.
- If available, the Festival Alleluia (GIA), with the Pentecost verse found in Appendix B, is sung for the Gospel Acclamation.
- If the dismissal of the people is chanted by the presider, the cantor must promptly – without pause or hesitation – lead the chanted response found in Appendix F.
- The hymn, “Hail Thee, Festival Day”, could be considered as a Recessional hymn if (1) it is available in the hymnal, (2) a strong choir and skilled musicians are performing at the Vigil of Pentecost, AND (3) the congregation is not likely to sing at this Liturgy. It is usually unfamiliar to Catholic congregations and is difficult to sing; thus, it needs to be well rehearsed by choir, cantor, and musicians alike in order to be performed accurately and well. Nevertheless, it is a particularly festive hymn that is highly appropriate for this occasion. If used, the Pentecost verses (5-6) should be sung this night.

understands what is said, alleluia.

Or:

The love of God has been poured into our hearts
through the Spirit of God dwelling within us, alleluia.

Communion Antiphon

They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke of the marvels of God, alleluia.

Notes

- The Sequence is sung by the cantor only (i.e., no choir) immediately after the Second Reading on Sunday morning only, not at the Saturday Vigil Mass. Either the hymn “Come, O Holy Spirit” (BB) or the chant version (Appendix G) may be used. If the hymn used, the entire hymn is to be sung. Accompaniment should be soft and reverent, like Meditation hymns.

- If available, the Festival Alleluia (GIA), with the Pentecost verse found in Appendix B, is sung for the Gospel Acclamation immediately after the Sequence.
- If the dismissal of the people is chanted by the presider, the cantor must promptly—without pause or hesitation—lead the chanted response found in Appendix F.

Part VII

ORDINARY TIME (SUMMER)

Between Pentecost and Advent

The season of Ordinary Time begins on the Monday following the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord, which replaces the First Sunday of Advent. Ordinary Time continues until the start of Lent on Ash Wednesday, at which time it pauses and resumes after the conclusion of the Easter season on Pentecost Sunday. The number of weeks in Ordinary Time between Christmas and Lent varies from year to year.

The Mass parts for all Masses during Ordinary Time are taken from the appropriate Liturgical Cycle unless otherwise noted:

Year B: discipleship, love, grace, suffering, prophecy

Year C: witness, peace, renewal, comfort, blessing

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God,
we have received in the midst of your temple.
Your praise, O God, like your name,
reaches the ends of the earth;
your right hand is filled with saving justice.

Communion Antiphon

Taste and see that the Lord is good;
blessed the man who seeks refuge in him.

Or:

Come to me, all who labor and are burdened,
and I will refresh you, says the Lord.

64 TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Themes

Year A: active faith, community, cross, mercy, humility

Year B: prophecy, ways of God, healing, forgiveness, renewal, unity

Year C: justice, faith, zeal

Entrance Antiphon

All that you have done to us, O Lord
you have done with true judgment, for we have sinned against you and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.

Communion Antiphon

Remember your word to your servant, O Lord,
by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.

Or:

By this we came to know the love of God;
that Christ laid down his life for us;
so we ought to lay down our lives for one another.

Themes

Year A: God's providential care, suffering for the Gospel, comfort, petition, prayer

Year B: marriage, family, commitment, sacrifice, covenant

Year C: faith, word of God

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will.
For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth,
and all that is held within the circle of heaven;
you are the Lord of all.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him,
to the soul that seeks him.

Or:

Though many, we are one bread, one body,
for we all partake of the one Bread and one Chalice.

Year B: suffering, service, comfort

Year C: perseverance, faith, word of God

Entrance Antiphon

To you I call; for you will surely heed me, O God;
turn your ear to me; hear my words.
Guard me as the apple of your eye;
in the shadow of your wings protect me.

Communion Antiphon

Behold, the eyes of the Lord
are on those who fear him,
who hope in his merciful love,
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine.

Or:

Notes

- The Lectionary contains several options for readings for Thanksgiving Day. The Responsorial Psalm should be taken from the set of readings selected by the Presider. Other Responsorial Psalm refrains can be often be found within the Respond and Acclaim book for the given year. Otherwise, the psalm can be recited.

Part VIII

SOLEMNITIES AND FEASTS

This section contains special feasts and solemnities throughout the year. Some are celebrated on specific dates, while others “float” within the liturgical calendar from year to year. See the Notes for each occasion for more information.

If any of these feasts or solemnities falls on a Sunday, the music selections for the feast or solemnity should be used.

The Mass parts are always taken from the Liturgical season in which the occasion falls, unless otherwise noted.

The prudent musician is encouraged to consult with the presider before the start of any of these celebrations for any special instructions or information, such as the use of incense within the liturgy.

75 SOLEMNITY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

December 8

Themes

Mary, purity, the benevolence of God

Entrance Antiphon

I rejoice heartily in the Lord,
in my God is the joy of my soul;
for he has clothed me with a robe of salvation,
and wrapped me in a mantle of justice,
like a bride adorned with her jewels

Communion Antiphon

Glorious things are spoken of you, O Mary,
for from you arose the sun of justice,
Christ our God.

82 SOLEMNITY OF SAINTS PETER AND PAUL, APOSTLES: MASS DURING THE DAY

June 28

Themes

Peter, Paul, faith, evangelization, Church

Entrance Antiphon

These are the ones who, living in the flesh, planted the Church with their blood;
they drank the chalice of the Lord and became the friends of God.

Communion Antiphon

Peter said to Jesus: You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.
And Jesus replied: You are Peter,
and upon this rock I will build my Church.

Table 84.4: Choral anthems could be sung before Mass, in place of an offertory hymn, in place of a Communion hymn (if appropriate), or after Communion for meditation.

Year A	Lauda, Jerusalem
Year B	Panis Angelicus (Franck)

Notes

- The optional Sequence, found in Appendix H, is sung by the cantor only immediately after the Second Reading. Either the long or short version may be used at the discretion of the presider. Musicians must coordinate with the presider before Mass to determine if the Sequence is desired, and if so, whether the long or short version is preferred. Accompaniment should be soft and reverent, like Meditation hymns.
- If a Eucharist Procession takes place after Mass, “Lauda, Jerusalem”, as found in Appendix I, can be sung, cycling through verses 1-4 as many times as needed and concluding with either verse 5 or 6 upon reaching the final destination, as in the recording.
- If Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament takes place during or after Mass, the music is taken from Appendix J.

85 SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST SACRED HEART OF JESUS

Nineteenth day after Pentecost (Friday)

Themes

love, providence, mercy

Entrance Antiphon

The designs of his heart are from age to age,
to rescue their souls from death,
and to keep them alive in famine.

Communion Antiphon

Thus says the Lord:
Let whoever is thirsty come to me and drink.
Streams of living water will flow from within the one who believes in me.

communion of saints, prayer, resurrection, hope

Entrance Antiphon

(1) Just as Jesus died and has risen again, so through Jesus God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep;
and as in Adam all die, so also in Christ will all be brought to life.

Or:

(2) Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.

Or:

(3) God, who raised Jesus from the dead, will give life also to your mortal bodies, through his Spirit that dwells in you.

Communion Antiphon

(1) I am the Resurrection and the Life, says the Lord.
Whoever believes in me, even though he dies, will live,
and everyone who lives and believes in me will not die for ever.

Or:

(2) Let perpetual light shine upon them, O Lord,
with your Saints for ever, for you are merciful.

Or:

(3) We await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ,
who will change our mortal bodies,
to conform with his glorified body.

Choral Anthems

Table 91.4: Choral anthems could be sung before Mass, in place of an offertory hymn, in place of a Communion hymn (if appropriate), or after Communion for meditation.

Year A	On the Wings of Change
Year B	The Trumpet Shall Sound (from Handel's Messiah)

Notes

- The Commemoration of All Souls is not a Holy Day of Obligation. Accordingly, the parts of the Mass may be recited instead of sung. Musicians should coordinate with the presider before Mass for special instructions.
- The Responsorial Psalm, if sung, can be taken from Respond & Acclaim (RA).
- The Gospel Acclamation is sung: Chant Mode VI. Verses from the appropriate year:
 - Year A:

“If we die with Christ, we shall live with him;
and if we are faithful to the end, wé shall reign with him.”
 - Year B:

“Come, you who are blessed by my Fáther;
inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the
*foundá*tion of the world.”
 - Year C:

“Jesus Christ is the firstborn óf the dead;
glory and kingship be his for ever and evér. Amen”
- Year A: The Meditation Hymn should correspond to the Gospel that is read.

92 FEAST OF THE DEDICATION OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

November 9

Themes

Church, our ties to Rome, glory, holiness, joy, dwelling-place of God, people of God

Entrance Antiphon

I saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem,
coming down out of heaven from God,
prepared like bride adorned for her husband.

Or:

Behold God's dwelling with the human race.
He will dwell with them and they will be his people, and God himself with them will be their God.

Communion Antiphon

Be built up like living stones,
into a spiritual house, a holy priesthood.

C FESTIVAL ALLELUIA

Published by GIA; verses arranged by M. Grossi

The “Festival Alleluia” by Chepponis, published by GIA, is recommended for high solemnities throughout the year, if available to the parish:

- Christmas Midnight Mass
- Christmas Day (both at dawn and during the day)
- Easter Sunday
- Pentecost (both Vigil and Sunday)

Be sure to sing the correct verse for the given occasion.

The piece itself is copyrighted and has its own verses, but simpler verses set to psalm tones and having the same texts as the Lectionary have been arranged by M. Grossi. These are provided here for both cantor and organist. The unaltered refrain melody, as published by GIA, is also reproduced here for convenience.

Provided here are the cantor version, both refrain and verses, and the organ accompaniment for the psalm tone verses.

D SOLEMNITY OF SAINT JOSEPH, SPOUSE OF MARY (ABC)

Responsorial Psalm and Lenten Gospel Acclamation (March 19)

The following Responsorial Psalm and Gospel Acclamation can be used if the Solemnity of Saint Joseph falls within the Season of Lent.

The Responsorial Psalm was arranged by M. Grossi.

The Lenten Gospel Acclamation refrain from OCP Respond & Acclaim by Owen Alstott is copyrighted by OCP, as indicated, while the verse text was arranged to a simple psalm tone by M. Grossi because none existed in Respond & Acclaim the year this was needed.

F THE PASCHAL PROCLAMATION (EXSULTET)

Easter Vigil

The Paschal Proclamation, also known as the Exsultet, is an ancient proclamation that consecrates the Paschal (Easter) Candle during the Easter Vigil celebration.

The cantor may be asked by the Presider to chant this, if the Presider is uncomfortable chanting it himself. In this situation, the cantor should be extremely comfortable with this important – and lengthy – chant, which is to be done a capella and in the dark. Be sure to confirm with the Presider whether to chant the long version (provided here, usually preferred) or the optional shorter version. Regardless of the version used, the cantor must always omit the section for Deacon/Priest only; see instructions that accompany the Proclamation.

G EASTER DISMISSAL

The Easter Dismissal is used at the Easter Vigil, on Easter Sunday morning, throughout the Octave of Easter (concluding with the Second Sunday of Easter), for the Pentecost Vigil and for Pentecost Sunday.

The priest or deacon chants the dismissal and the people respond “Thanks be to God, alleluia, alleluia.” This is all a cappella.

The cantor and/or choir must lead the congregation in the response. The response starts immediately after the priest, just like when spoken. DO NOT DELAY OR HESITATE HERE.

The cantor must be very confident in this response. Be prepared; do not be caught off-guard.

H SEQUENCE FOR PENTECOST (ABC)

According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the following Sequence is chanted immediately following the Second Reading and before the Gospel Acclamation on Pentecost Sunday. It is not sung at the Saturday Vigil Mass.

Here, the official approved text, as found in the Lectionary, is put to a simple psalm tone arranged by M. Grossi (©2023). A cantor version containing only the psalm melody is provided first, followed by an organ version with a suggested accompaniment arranged by M. Grossi (©2023).

Liturgical performance notes

- The melody is simply repeated for each stanza in a fashion similar to the more-familiar singing of Responsorial Psalm verses, one line per stanza.
- The use of italics font together with an accent symbol (´) indicates the textual syllable on which to move to the next note in the stanza. Everything preceding this annotated syllable is chanted on the first note of the measure. The musical timing of these sustained notes is arbitrary and should be determined entirely by the singing, which should be done in a smooth, chant-like fashion.
- The verses are arranged column-wise: Read down column one first, then the second column (verse 2 begins “Come, O Father...”)

Come, Holy Spirit (Veni, Sancte Spiritus)

Cantor:

Organ:

Come, O Holy Spirit, cóme!
 And from your celéstial home
 Shed a ray of líght divine!

Come, O Father of the póor!
 Come, source of áll our store!
 Come, within our bósoms shine.

You, of comforters the bést;
 You, the soul's most wélcome guest;
 Sweet refreshment hére below;

In our labor, rest most swéet;
 Grateful coolness ín the heat;
 Solace in the mídst of woe.

O most blessed, Light divíne,
 Shine within these héarts of yours,
 And our inmost béing fill!

Where you are not, we have náught,
 Nothing good in déed or thought,
 Nothing free from táint of ill.

Heal our wounds, our strength renéw;
 On our dryness póur your dew;
 Wash the stains of gúilt away:

Bend the stubborn heart and wíll;
 Melt the frozen, wárm the chill;
 Guide the steps that gó astray.

On the faithful, who adóre
 And confess you, évermore
 In your sev'nfold gíft descend;

Give them virtue's sure rewárd;
 Give them your salvátion, Lord;
 Give them joys that néver end.

Amén. Alléluia, Alléluia.

I SEQUENCE FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST (ABC)

Second Sunday after Pentecost

According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the Sequence, or the shorter form beginning with the verse Lo! the angel's food is given, may optionally be chanted immediately following the Second Reading and before the Gospel Acclamation on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. It is not sung at the Saturday Vigil Mass.

Here, the official approved text, as found in the Lectionary, is put to a simple psalm tone arranged by M. Grossi (©2021). Both the full version and shorter option are included. A cantor version containing only the psalm melody is provided first, followed by an organ version with a suggested accompaniment arranged by M. Grossi (©2021).

Liturgical performance notes

- The chant tone contains six measures, some of which are omitted for stanzas containing fewer than six lines of text. The annotated melody is provided at the top of each page.
- The melody is simply repeated for each stanza in a fashion similar to the more-familiar singing of Responsorial Psalm verses. Liturgical musicians are advised to be keenly attentive to what tone measure coincides with each stanza, especially as the stanza structures evolve from three to four, to five, and finally to six lines.
- The use of italics font together with an accent symbol (´) indicates the textual syllable on which to move to the next note in the tone for each line. Everything preceding this annotated syllable is chanted on the first note of the measure. The musical timing of these sustained notes is arbitrary and should be determined entirely by the singing, which should be done in a smooth, chant-like fashion.
- The verses are arranged column-wise: Read down column one first, then the second column (verse 2 begins Bring him all...)

Click to download Laud, O Zion, the Sequence for Corpus Christi.

Laud, O Zion (Lauda Sion)

Cantor:

Organ:

Laud, O Zion, yóur salvation,
Laud with hymns of éxultation,
Christ, your king and shépherd true:

Bring him all the práise you know,
He is more than yóu bestow.
Never can you réach his due.

Special theme for glád thanksgiving
Is the quick'ning ánd the living
Bread today befóre you set:

From his hands of óld partaken,
As we know, by fáith unshaken,
Where the Twelve at súpper met.

Full and clear ring óut your chanting,
Joy nor sweetest gráce be wanting,
From your heart let práises burst:

For today the féast is holden,
When the institútion olden
Of that supper wás rehearsed.

Here the new law's néw oblation,
By the new king's révelation,
Ends the form of áncient rite:

Now the new the óld effaces,
Truth away the sháadow chases,
Light dispels the glóom of night.

What he did at súpper seated,
Christ ordained to bé repeated,
His memorial nevér to cease:

And his rule for gúidance taking
Bread and wine we hállow, making
Thus our sacrífice of peace.

This the truth each Chrístian learns,
Bread into his flésh he turns,
To his precious blóod the wine:

Sight has fail'd, nor thóught conceives,
But a dauntless fáith believes,
Resting on a pów'r divine.

Here beneath these *sígn*s are hidden
Priceless things to sénse forbidden;
Signs, not things are áll we see:

Blood is poured and flésh is broken,
Yet in either wóndrous token
Christ entire we knów to be.

Whoso of this fóod partakes,
Does not rend the Lórd nor breaks;
Christ is whole to áll that taste:

Thousands are, as óne, receivers,
One, as thousands óf believers,
Eats of him who cánnot waste.

Bad and good the féast are sharing,
Of what divers dóoms preparing,
Endless death, or éndless life.

Life to these, to thóse damnation,
See how like partícipation
Is with unlike íssues rife.

When the sacramént is broken,
Doubt not, but believe 'tis spoken,
That each severed outwárd token
Doth the very whóle contain.

Nought the precious gift divides,
Breaking but the sign betides
Jesus still the same ábides,
Still unbroken dóes remain.

The shorter form of the Sequence begins here.

Lo! the angel's fóod is given
To the pilgrim whó has striven;
See the children's bread fróm heaven,
Which on dogs may nót be spent.

Truth the ancient týpes fulfilling,
Isaac bound, a víctim willing,
Paschal lamb, its lifeblóod spilling,
Manna to the fáthers sent.

Very bread, good shépherd, tend us,
Jesu, of your lóve befriend us,
You refresh us, yóu defend us,
Your eternal góodness send us
In the land of lífe to see.

You who all things cán and know,
Who on earth such fóod bestow,
Grant us with your sáints, though lowest,
Where the heav'nly féast you show,
Fellow heirs and guests tó be.
Amen. Alléluia.

J LAUDA, JERUSALEM

If a Eucharist Procession takes place after Mass on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ \(Corpus Christi\), “Lauda, Jerusalem” can be sung, cycling through verses 1-4 as many times as needed and concluding with either verse 5 or 6 upon reaching the final destination, as in the recording.

Suggestions, dependent on music ministry and level of musical participation:

- Cantor chants verses, choir and/or people sing refrains
- Multiple cantors take turns chanting verses, choir and/or people sing refrains
- Subset of the choir sing verses, full choir and/or people sing refrains
- Choir, scattered throughout the procession, sing verses, choir and people sing refrains
