

PENTECOST SUNDAY (Mass During the Day)

Sequence for Sunday Liturgy

✠ Psalm tone accompaniment and textual arrangement by
Matthew Grossi Document created May 2023

According to the General Instruction of the Roman Missal, the Sequence for Pentecost is sung/chanted immediately following the Second Reading and before the Gospel Acclamation.

Liturgical performance notes:

- ✠ The melody is simply repeated for each stanza in a fashion similar to the more-familiar singing of Responsorial Psalm verses.
- ✠ The use of italics font together with an accent symbol (´) indicates the textual syllable on which to move to the next note in the tone for each line. Everything preceding this annotated syllable is chanted on the first note of the measure. The musical timing of these sustained notes is arbitrary and should be determined entirely by the singing, which should be done in a smooth, chant-like fashion.

| 1. Holy Spirit, Lord divíne,
Come, from heights of héav'n and shine,
Come with blessed rádiance bright! | 6. Left without your presence hére ,
Life itself would dísappear ,
Nothing thrives apárt from you! |
| 2. Come, O Father of the póor ,
Come, whose treasured gífts ensure,
Come, our heart's unfáiling light! | 7. Cleanse our soiled hearts of sín ,
Arid souls refrésh within,
Wounded lives to héalth restore. |
| 3. Of consolers, wisest, bést ,
And our soul's most wélcome guest,
Sweet refreshment, swéet repose. | 8. Bend the stubborn heart and wíll ,
Melt the frozen, wárm the chill,
Guide the wayward hóme once more! |
| 4. In our labour rest most swéet ,
Pleasant coolness ín the heat,
Consolation ín our woes. | 9. On the faithful who are trúe
And profess their fáith in you,
In your sev'nfold gíft descend! |
| 5. Light most blessed, shine with gráce
In our heart's most sécret place,
Fill your faithful thróugh and through. | 10. Give us virtue's sure rewárd ,
Give us your salvátion , Lord,
Give us joys that néver end! |
